of San Fernando Valley residents the Valley Cultural Foundation has been the focal point of summer entertainment and enrichment. Since 1975 over 3.1 million people have attended our free community musical and arts programs. More than 180,000 people will attend a Valley Cultural Foundation event each and every summer.

Valley Cultural Foundation is one of the largest 501 (C)(3) charitable non-profit arts outreach organizations in Southern California. In addition to our arts-related programming, we are actively involved with other non-profit organizations in our common goal of enriching lives and building upon the fabric that bonds our community together.

We invite you to participate in our Legacy Program and give the gift of music and art to our community. Your name or message can become a physical part of our facility, history and forever.
